ABOUT US

Established in 2007, Penn Group is your ultimate destination for a comprehensive range of professional services designed to provide you peace of mind; to protect you, your loved ones, and your business.

The Group has grown alongside our clients. The list of services we provide has been meticulously curated over time to meet your evolving needs. Proudly recognised as the go-to professionals, we offer the unique advantage of addressing complex challenges under one roof, simultaneously.

Our expert advisors work collaboratively across our sister companies, ensuring seamless communication to achieve your objectives. Each expert brings their unique perspective, tailoring advice to deliver optimal outcomes for you.

To further this mission, our in-house advanced technology ensures we remain at the forefront of IT developments, delivering transparent solutions promptly, every time.

Renowned for our strategic approach, we consistently achieve exceptional results.

Each company within Penn Group operates as a separate business entity, regulated by its own governing body, providing you with the highest standards and confidence in our services.

SERVICES FOR BUSINESSES | PENN ACCOUNTS

At Penn Accounts we specialise in providing accounting services tailored to the needs of small and mid-sized businesses across the United Kingdom.

For business owners, time as well as money are precious commodities. The last thing you want is to spend them on routine bookkeeping and accounting tasks. Moreover, the increasingly complex and confusing nature of accountancy regulations for both individuals and companies can lead to costly errors, penalties, and interest payments.

We recognise that as a business owner or entrepreneur, whether you're just starting out or already well-established, your primary focus is on your business strategy and success.

That's where we come in. Our team of specialist accountants are here to handle your accounting needs, allowing you to concentrate on driving your business forward and achieving your goals.

Accountancy:

- Year End Accounts
- VAT & VAT Returns
- Self Assessment

Bookkeeping:

- Sales, Purchase and Nominal Ledgers
- Bank Accounts Reconciliation
- Employee Expenses

SERVICES FOR BUSINESSES | PENN TECH

Penn Tech continues to operate as the Group's central technology and support company, underpinning our professional services with robust, intelligent systems.

We have designed and built a powerful in-house back-office and file management platform, developed specifically for the needs of professional services businesses. The latest evolution, Proteus 4, is here!

Proteus 4 streamlines file management, compliance processes, and staff oversight, creating clarity, control, and efficiency across day-to-day operations.

If you are looking to modernise the way your firm manages files, compliance, or internal workflows, Penn Tech can help. We also work with professional services firms to review, optimise, and future-proof their technology set-up, sharing practical best-practice insights drawn from real-world use.

Talk to us about transforming the way your business operates through smarter technology.

WHY PENN GROUP?

At Penn Group, excellence is not just a goal; it is our standard across all our companies. We are dedicated to delivering professional services of the highest calibre, ensuring your needs are met efficiently and effectively.

Our commitment to excellence means you can achieve more in the most cost-effective manner, with seamless ease. We streamline processes to enable you to focus on what matters most, without unnecessary hassle or expense.

Within Penn Group, each advisor has access to a diverse team of experts in law, accountancy, mortgages and protections and technology. This collective expertise allows us to offer holistic and objective advice tailored to your unique circumstances. Instead of navigating multiple sources of advice alone, we connect the dots for you, guiding you every step of the way.

At Penn Group, we are not just service providers; we are your partners on this journey. Together, we navigate challenges, seize opportunities, and help you to achieve your goals.

We go on that journey together with you.
